FEAST OF THE HOLY FAMILY

A MESSAGE FROM...

This end of the year is chock-full of celebrations in the family of St. James. We've got Christmas Eve, Christmas Day, and Christmas-what's-the-opposite-of-Eve on Sunday. Actually, the Church this year will call that last one the Feast of the Holy Family—sorry, St. Stephen—all because Christmas falls on a Saturday.

Now, I know everyone comes to church on Christmas Eve to hear all about the angels and shepherds who graced the Holy Family with their presence that cold winter's night many years ago. It sells.

But since Christmas is all tied up with Holy Family this year, let's change it up for a minute by considering the ancestry of the Holy Family.

That big genealogy that opens up the Gospel according to Matthew—what's supposed to be read at the Christmas Vigil Mass—is a great glimpse into how messed up the Holy Family's lineage is. Take a look at the first 16 verses of Matthew. It's loaded with liars, cheaters, stealers, idolaters, tricksters, coveters, strangers, etc. It's got some upstanding folks, some voices of reason, and some who are faithful beyond expectation.

Sound a little bit like your family? Or our church family? Then take some consolation in the fact that the blessing of God made its way through that mess, so there's no reason it can't make it through our mess, too. If Jesus, the holy of holies, could be grafted into this lineage to form it into a holy family, then far be it from us to say that we're too broken (or too holy!) to follow suit. Even Mary and Joseph had to learn how to continue to live holiness in the midst of chaos (hence the dialogue in Sunday's Gospel, the finding of Jesus in the Temple).

No doubt we can learn this too, relying on the help of the one born of a mother to become our brother and show us the Father.

To this family of St. James: I hope you've had or are having or have a very grace-filled Christmas Eve, Day, and whatever you're calling the 26th this year.

Fr. Ryan

Let us remember that the Christ Child comes to bring love, hope, and joy to all! May His bountiful blessings be upon you and your families
this Christmas season!

Heavenly Father, you have given us the model of life in the Holy Family of Nazareth. Help us, O Loving Father, to make our family another Nazareth where love, peace and joy reign. May it be deeply contemplative, intensely eucharistic, revived with joy. Help us to stay together in joy and sorrow in family prayer. Teach us to see Jesus in the members of our families, especially in their distressing disguise. May the eucharistic heart of Jesus make our hearts humble like his and help us to carry out our family duties in a holy way. May we love one another as God loves each one of us, more and more each day, and forgive each other's faults as you forgive our sins.

MINISTRY SPOTLIGHT

Save the Date!

Saint James Church and School will be hosting a children's book drive to benefit Bernie's Book Bank. We will be collecting new and gently used books (birth-6th grade reading level) from January 24 - February 6. In early January, we will share more information on how you can donate books to children in the Chicagoland area.

WELCOME TO ST. JAMES

TO THE PARENTS OF OUR YOUNG CHILDREN, MAY WE SUGGEST...

Relax! God put the wiggle in children;
don't feel you have to suppress it in God's house.

All are welcome!

Sit toward the front where it is easier for your little ones to see and hear what's going on at the altar.

They tire of seeing the backs of other's heads.

Quietly explain the parts of the Mass
and actions of the priests, altar servers, musicians, etc...

Sing the hymns, pray and voice the responses. Children learn liturgical behavior by copying you.

If you have to leave Mass with your child,
feel free to do so,
but please come back!

As Jesus said, "Let the children come to me."

Remember the way we welcome children in church directly affects the way they respond to the church,
to God and to one another.

Let them know that they are to be reverent in this house of worship.

TO THE MEMBERS OF OUR PARISH

The presence of children is a gift to the church and they are a reminder that our parish is growing. Please welcome our children and give a smile of encouragement to their parents.
