*BE DISCIPLES OF CHRIST.
MAKE DISCIPLES OF CHRIST.*

TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

A MESSAGE FROM...

Today's Readings

First Reading:

Thus far shall you come but no farther, and here shall your proud waves be stilled!

(Jb 38:11)

Psalm:

Give thanks to the Lord, his love is everlasting.

(Ps 107)

Second Reading:

So whoever is in Christ is a new creation: the old things have passed away; behold, new things have come.

(2 Cor 5:17)

Gospel:

They were filled with great awe and said to one another, "Who then is this whom even wind and sea obey?"

(Mk 4:41)

"Along with our school and parish staff, I extend our deep gratitude to Dr. Kendrick."

In just a week, St. James School's principal Dr. Mike Kendrick will be completing his service at our parish school and moving on to a new opportunity as superintendent of the Felician school system.

Dr. Kendrick has served as principal here for five years. He has performed exceedingly well, navigating successfully through the great challenge of the COVID 19 pandemic and all the unique difficulties it brought. School enrollment increased significantly during that time, due to the prudent and wise managing of the COVID situation. Dr. Kendrick returned our school to normalcy over the last year, and things are running smoothly now.

Dr. Kendrick is also a very fine example of a man living out his vocation as a husband and father. Along with his wife Rita, he is raising a young family, forming them as disciples of Jesus Christ.

His Catholic faith was an integral part of his work as St. James' principal as well, as he has been so committed to forming our young people as Catholic men and women.

Along with our school and parish staff, I extend our deep gratitude to Dr. Kendrick. We are proud of your accomplishments and your commitment and professionalism. We send you with our congratulations and prayers for many blessings in your new calling to the Felician network.

God bless you,

Fr. Ed

Goodbye, Deacon Sam Resch and Family!

To Our St. James Parish Family,

Thank you for letting our family be a part of yours. You have shared your faith, hope and love with us through your hearts, minds and lips to strengthen our faith and illuminate our footsteps in our daily lives and on our family's spiritual journey.

We would love to hear from you and can be reached at samresch@sbcglobal.net. I want to reiterate George Bethel's words that he spoke to our family twenty-two years ago with open arms, "Welcome to St. James Catholic Church, and if you ever need anything just ask." These words were, are and always will be St. James Parish. May God's Blessings and Mary's maternal love enrich your daily life and spiritual journey as it has enriched ours.

God Bless,

Deacon Sam, Kari and Kiana Resch

PATH TO SUNDAY

12th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Year B | Gospel of Mk 4:35-41

One of life's most challenging questions is why God allows suffering. We often ask why God permits cancer, the loss of a child, or personal hardships like losing a job or home. While a complete explanation is complex, today's Gospel offers us a perspective. Mark 4:35-41 emphasizes that while Christ saves us, God still permits struggles and suffering for our spiritual growth and to deepen our love for Him.

Observing the world's suffering and injustice suggests a fundamental problem that cannot be resolved merely through education or social programs. Sin, or the rejection of God's love, has introduced death and suffering into the world. God, however, through Jesus, has shown His care by experiencing human suffering and death. This act of solidarity and sacrifice is central to salvation, which involves not just escaping hell but also renewing and healing a broken creation.

God permits suffering to foster true love and trust in Him. Through adversity (like the apostles' fear during the storm) we are called to deepen our faith and relationship with God. Ultimately, salvation is about perfecting our love for God and one another, preparing us for eternal happiness in heaven.

Reflection Questions:

- How do you respond to suffering in your life? Do you see it as a chance to deepen your faith and trust in God?
- When facing "storms" in your life, do you trust that Jesus is with you, calming the chaos?
- How can you grow in love for God and others through your struggles and challenges?
