THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

PATH TO SUNDAY

Today's Readings

First Reading:

But by the envy of the devil, death entered the world.

(Wis 2:24)

Psalm:

I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

(Ps 30)

Second Reading:

Not that others should have relief while you are burdened, but that as a matter of equality your abundance at the present time should supply their needs, so that their abundance may also supply your needs, that there may be equality.

(2 Cor 8:13-14)

Gospel:

He took the child by the hand and said to her, "Talitha koum," which means, "Little girl, I say to you, arise!"

(Mk 5:41)

13th Sunday of Ordinary Time

Year B

Gospel of Mark 5:21-43

Today's Gospel story is an example of what some scripture scholars call a "Markan sandwich." We have the story of the woman afflicted with a hemorrhage in between the two halves of the story of the little girl who died and was brought back to life by Jesus. What links the two stories is the number 12: the little girl was twelve years old, and the woman had a hemorrhage for 12 years. One story enlightens the other.

In the case of the woman with the hemorrhage; such a flow of blood would have made her ritually impure and unable to participate in the life and activities of the temple and synagogue. In effect, she was spiritually "dead" for twelve years. Yet, Jesus fulfills the entire law of the covenant, including the laws covering ritual purity. Thus, when the woman touched him, he should have become ritually impure himself; but he did not as he cured her. When he touched the dead body of the little girl, he likewise would have become ritually impure; but he did not, as she lived.

It the end, it is a question of faith in Jesus Christ; faith leads to life and purity of heart. We just need to be like the woman and be willing to merely touch his cloak.

Reflection Questions:

Where do you need to grow in purity of heart? What are the areas of sin in your life that require Jesus' healing?

Where am you in your faith journey; do you really trust in Jesus and his power to liberate you from everything that holds you back?

How long has it been since you have been to confession? A year, twelve years, or more?

July Prayer Service CANCELLED

Due to the holiday, our July 3rd Prayer Circle has been cancelled. Our next service will be on Wednesday, August 7th.

Loving God, You are our refuge, our strength and our hope. Please reach out to those who experience mental illness - either themselves or with someone they love. Lift their burdens, calm their anxiety, and quiet their fears. Surround them with your healing presence that they may know that they are not alone. We ask this through the intercession of St. Dymphna and in the name of your Son, Jesus and the Holy Spirit, now and forever. Amen.

This Week's Recommendation

Plastic waste is a huge and growing problem. Only 9% of the 9 billion tons of plastic produced has been recycled. There is very little demand for the plastic you do recycle. 40% of all plastic is designed to be used once and tossed. Plastic doesn't decompose easily and can last 100s of years. The waste clogs landfills and waterways, and poses hazards to animals and fish life. It breaks up into ever smaller microplastics getting into our air and food chain with unknown health effects.

What you can do:

- Say NO to single-use plastic. Carry your own cups, bags, to-go containers, utensils and forget the straws.
- Say NO to bottled water and pop. Carry refillables.
- Choose more biodegradable/recyclable materials like glass, paper, cardboard, and metal instead of plastic, and then recycle those items.
- Avoid products with excessive packaging, excessive plastic packaging and parts. If it leaves behind plastic trash, try not to buy it.
- Recycle what you can't refuse, reduce or reuse.
