"Welcome to our interim co-principals. Both are experienced professionals and women of faith."

Just as the living Father sent me and I have life because of the Father, so also the one who feeds on me will have life because of me. This is the bread that came down from heaven. Unlike your ancestors who ate and still died, whoever eats this bread will live forever.

- John 6:57-58

Dear Friends,

This week the new school year begins at St. James. Welcome to all of our new and returning students and families. I have been blessed to have a school as part of every parish at which I have served. A parish school brings a dynamic energy to a parish, and our schools are blessed with dedicated, faith-filled, excellent teachers. I am looking forward to a grace-filled year.

It is a fair question to ask why we have Catholic schools. It takes a lot of effort and time and resources to operate a good Catholic school. Originally, Catholic schools were established to offer a Catholic education to children who were often exposed to an education which was often not supportive of the Catholic faith. Today I believe that the mission of our Catholic schools is to introduce our children, in partnership with their parents, to Jesus Christ and the Catholic faith.

In John Chapter 6, Jesus says, "Just as the living Father sent me and I have life because of the Father, so also the one who feeds on me will have life because of me." It is this eternal life which we work to introduce to our students. Our parish's mission is "to be disciples and make disciples." That is why we have Catholic schools.

A grateful welcome to our interim co-principals, Mary Brinkman and Kathleen McGinn. Both are recently retired after many years as Catholic school teachers and principals. They generously agreed to serve temporarily until we hire a permanent principal. They are experienced and dedicated professionals and women of faith.

God bless you,

Fr. Ed

The Order of Christian Initiation for Adults (OCIA) is the process by which adults can come into the Church.

OCIA is for: those inquiring about the Catholic Church, those who have decided to become Catholic from another Christian tradition, and those baptized Catholic who never received religious education.

OCIA begins meeting in the fall and culminates at the Easter Vigil as participants receive the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist.

"The challenge is to not settle for superficial niceness but embrace genuine love..."

20th Sunday of Ordinary Time | Year B | John 6:51-58

Many today picture Jesus as a "hippie" – a laid-back guru who simply wants everyone to get along. This image contrasts sharply with the realities depicted in the Gospels. In Matthew 21, Jesus overturns the money changers' tables in the temple, and in Matthew 10, He says that those who don't take up their cross are not worthy of Him. Jesus clearly states He did not come to bring peace, but division.

This depiction of Jesus as merely a nice teacher ignores His radical claims, including His assertion of divinity ("The Father and I are one"). Some preach that Jesus merely wants us to be nice, but history shows that true followers of Christ face real challenges. Jesus' own words indicate that being a follower is not about being nice, it is about radical love, which is a different thing. It requires a passionate commitment to truth, even when it's difficult.

The challenge for us is to not settle for superficial niceness but to embrace a genuine, sometimes challenging love that seeks the truth. Just as a loving parent makes tough decisions for their child's welfare, we must confront uncomfortable truths with courage. Are we on fire for Jesus, seeking holiness, or are we lukewarm, failing to live out our faith fully? This week, reflect on what it means to be truly passionate about your relationship with God.

stjamesah.org/path-to-sunday/

Reflection Questions:

- How might you be viewing Jesus as just a "nice" teacher rather than recognizing the radical expectations He has for His followers? What changes can you make to better align with His call to carry your cross?
- Consider your current level of commitment to your faith. Are you on fire for God, or do you find yourself lukewarm? What specific steps can you take this week to reignite your passion and live more fully for Christ?

CREATION CARE TIP FOR THIS WEEK

Reduce outdoor watering waste.

Experts estimate that 50 percent of the water we use outdoors goes to waste from evaporation, wind, or runoff due to overwatering. Frequent lawn watering is expensive and often unnecessary. A typical lawn only needs about one inch of water per week to survive. So if there is no rain, water every 6-8 days to reduce your water bill. A best practice: water for 15 minutes then allow the water to soak in for a while and repeat 3-4 times.
