TWENTY SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Today's Readings

First Reading:

"You shall not add to what I command you nor subtract from it."

(Dt 4:2)

Psalm:

The one who does justice will live in the presence of the Lord.

(Ps 15)

Second Reading:

Be doers of the word and not hearers only, deluding yourselves.

(Jas 1:22)

Gospel:

"You disregard God's commandment but cling to human tradition."

(Mk 7:8)

"For what great nation is there that has gods so close to it as the LORD, our God, is to us whenever we call upon him?"

- Deuteronomy 4:7

Dear Friends,

Moses speaks to the people of Israel, about to enter the Promised Land, encouraging them to remain faithful to the covenant the Lord has made with them. He stresses the closeness of God, which is a great blessing to His chosen people.

We, too, in an even more intimate way, have God so close to us that he comes into us through the greatest of all sacraments, the Holy Eucharist. We have been proclaiming and hearing from the Gospel of John, chapter 6, over the last several weeks, and we experienced, either in person or via media, the Eucharistic Congress. We are so blessed with the power and the grace of this sacrament of the Lord Jesus' sacrificial offering on Calvary, made present on the altar at every Mass, and then, amazingly, offered to us as spiritual food and drink.

I would like to thank all those parishioners who have come forward to assist with the distribution of the sacrament when needed. I am grateful for their service.

I would like to call attention to a change in our practice of distribution of Holy Communion. In our Catholic sacramental theology, deacons and priests have received in Ordination the spiritual authority to bless in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. A practice has developed over the past few years in which lay extraordinary ministers of Communion are giving blessings to people who are not receiving the Sacrament, yet come forward at Communion time.

This is a practice which is not, nor has ever been, part of the Rite of Communion or the theology of the Church. No one, except for a priest or deacon is ever permitted to give a blessing in the liturgy. Beginning today, blessings will not be given by lay ministers to those who are not receiving Communion.

Naturally, parents bring their young children and babies with them to Communion. Please understand why they will not be given a blessing by the lay extraordinary minister. We eagerly look forward to the day when they are able to receive the Lord with us. Thanks for your understanding and faithfulness.

God bless you,

Fr. Ed
