TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Today's Readings

First Reading:

"Are you jealous for my sake? Would that all the people of the LORD were prophets!"
(Nm 11:29)

Psalm:

The precepts of the Lord give joy to the heart.
(Ps 19)

Second Reading:

Come now, you rich, weep and wail over your impending miseries. Your wealth has rotted away.
(Jas 5:1-2)

Gospel:

"There is no one who performs a mighty deed in my name who can at the same time speak ill of me. For whoever is not against us is for us."
(Mk 9:39-40)

"The dual calling of faith and citizenship lies at the heart of what it means to be a Catholic in the U.S.A."

Dear Friends,

In approaching the November election, Catholic citizens need to remember three things:

1. Respect for the dignity of each person is the core of Catholic social and moral teaching. This is our most basic principle.
2. We focus on the common good, not our own personal interests. We ask, how can we make the world a better place? Not, how can I improve my own personal situation? Here are some ways to do that.
 - Be true to the teachings of the Church. Read Scripture, the Catechism of the Catholic Church, teachings from the Holy See, and the statements of our bishops. Read Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship at faithfulcitizenship.org.
 - We need to be sure that our reasoning and judgments are well-grounded in our faith.
3. We have a responsibility—a true obligation—to form our consciences and participate in the civic life of this nation.

- Remain in contact with our representatives in local, state, and federal government. Our responsibility to form our consciences leads to an obligation to be active citizens. We communicate regularly with our leaders—not only during election seasons.

- Engage in reasoned, compassionate, and loving dialogue with others
- Stay well-informed about issues through judicious and reasoned engagement with the immense world of information in the 21st century. Just as all issues are not equal, all sources are not equal.

The dual calling of faith and citizenship lies at the heart of what it means to be a Catholic in the United States (These reflections are from the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops).

In the coming weeks, I will offer some more specific applications of these principles regarding important issues in the current context.

God bless you,

Fr. Ed

JOIN OUR MINISTRY OF COMPASSION

We are seeking Shift Volunteers & Meal Team Members.

ST.JAMES.PADS@GMAIL.COM

Serve as an

Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion

St. James needs Eucharistic Ministers especially for the 8:30, 11:30 and 5:00 Sunday Masses.

If you wish to develop a closer knowledge of and bond with The Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, please sign up. All volunteers will receive training before being scheduled to serve.

You may contact either Bonnie Minaglia at (847) 372-0960 or Gary Hammelmann at (847) 309-6024 if you are interested.

On the weekend of October 12-13, representatives from the ministry will be available to answer questions and help you sign up as a volunteer.

Volunteering as an E.M.H.C. is a wonderful way to serve our Lord, Jesus. We thank you for your prayerful consideration.

What draws you to this ministry?

Lynn Fonsino
St. James Parishioner since 1985
Stepping Stones member since 2011

We joined the St. James Parish October 1985, the year we moved to Arlington Heights. Our oldest Lisa entered eighth grade, Tara 6th, Patrick 3rd. Lauren was born in February. After committing much of my time taking care of my mother who lived with us for three and a half years and then five more years in a nursing home, I decided to join a ministry at St. James.

Fr. Charles Dahm, who later founded the Archdiocese of Chicago Domestic Violence Outreach, came to St. James and talked at masses about starting a ministry here. I thought I could help and be a part of this very important effort. I have been involved since its inception, Fall 2011.

Church Roof Repairs This Week

The roof on the old portion of the church needs to be replaced. Originally, this work was scheduled to take place in 2025. However, upon consultation with our architect from Wiss, Janney, Elstner Associates, Inc., and our project manager from the Archdiocese, we are scheduling this work to begin the week of September 30, 2024. In total, the work should take about six days to complete, weather permitting. Know that I am very appreciative of the treasure from you, the parishioners, that we can complete this work.

Thank you,
Deacon Matthew
