ARLINGTON HEIGHTS

ALL SAINTS FESTIVAL!

NOV 10
2024

*BE DISCIPLES OF CHRIST.
MAKE DISCIPLES OF CHRIST.*

THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Today's Readings

First Reading:

Elijah said to her, "Do not be afraid. Go and do as you propose. But first make me a little cake and bring it to me."
(1 Kgs 17:13)

Psalm:

Praise the Lord, my soul!
(Ps 146)

Second Reading:

But now once for all he has appeared at the end of the ages to take away sin by his sacrifice.
(Heb 9:26)

Gospel:

"Amen, I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury."
(Mk 12:43)

Dear Friends,

The story of "the widow's mite" is an especially beloved passage in Mark's Gospel. Jesus contrasts the wealthy people putting large sums of money into the Temple treasury with the poor widow contributing two small coins worth very little.

He tells his disciples "Amen, I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury. For they have all contributed from their surplus wealth, but she, from her poverty, has contributed all she had, her whole livelihood."

The poor widow gave from her heart and made a real sacrifice. Presumably this was out of a sincere devotion and love of God. This is what God asks of us – a wholehearted love, holding nothing back from Him, and He will give us all that we need, just as he supplied the widow of Zarephath food in abundance when she served the prophet Elijah from her own poverty.

Last weekend's Jubilation showed the great generosity of so many of our people for their neighbors in need. Thank you! Thanks also to all the generous volunteers who offered so much assistance in the execution of the event.

Thank you to the Jubilation co-chairs Matt and Christi Marcheschi and Ryan and Kristina Galis. Thanks also to Julie Jacobson, our Director of Development, and Mark Jacks, our Director of Digital Evangelization. I am very grateful for all the work they put into planning, promoting and hosting a wonderful evening!

God bless you,

Fr. Ed

Question:

Our prayer group has been reading the lives of some saints, and we were struck by how some of them thought they were such sinners. Why would such holy people think they had such serious sin?

Answer:

Professional athletes practice the fundamentals of their sport over and over again, reaching for better form, consistency, and better performance. They focus on the basics, review past performances, and visualize greater success. Practice makes better, if not perfect!

Spiritual masters such as the saints also looked for perfection. They practiced their faith in the search for holiness, grace, and virtue. Through sacraments, prayer, study, good works, and penance, they raised their level of awareness, their sensitivity to the presence of God, the demands of the Gospel, and the workings of the Holy Spirit. They examined their consciences daily, reviewing the day for moments of failure and times that they could have been more virtuous in one way or another. They resolved to do better, be more attentive and alert!

Therefore, anything that would distract them or interfere with their relationship with God would be like a small black spot on a bright white wall — you can't miss it! The great saints were aware of sin and the presence of evil because they were so tuned in to the struggle between good and evil that was fought in their own lives, hearts, and souls. We must guard against becoming desensitized to sin in our lives and unaware of the harm it causes us. A goal of any spiritual practice is to become more aware of our sinfulness so that we seek God's forgiving and healing love.
