*BE DISCIPLES OF CHRIST.
MAKE DISCIPLES OF CHRIST.*

EASTER SUNDAY

Today's Readings

First Reading:

He went about doing good and healing all those oppressed by the devil, for God was with him.

(Acts 10:38)

Psalm:

This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

(Ps 118)

Second Reading:

If then you were raised with Christ, seek what is above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God.

(Col 3:1)

Gospel:

So she ran and went to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and told them, "They have taken the Lord from the tomb, and we don't know where they put him."

(Jn 20:2)

Dear Friends,

Christos Anesti! Alithos anesti!

This is the ancient Greek proclamation of the resurrection of Jesus. The Messiah is risen! Indeed He is risen!

Our whole Catholic belief is built on this proclamation of our faith. Why do I proclaim this in Greek? Because after the Jewish converts, the Greeks embraced the faith in amazing numbers.

The letters of St. Paul – to the Ephesians, Corinthians, Thessalonians, Philippians, and many other early churches – were written to Greek converts to the Faith. Today this faith in Jesus Christ is proclaimed, as always, to all nations.

Our faith is this: Jesus Christ, the Son of God, born of Mary, entered our race, became one of us, walked our path of life, and ultimately suffered our death, and was raised to new life in the Resurrection.

That is what we joyfully celebrate today. Jesus, our Lord and Savior, is raised from death. He offers us eternal life through Baptism and our living our Christian discipleship.

Happy Easter to all, and may God bless you all on this Easter day!

Fr. Ed

IMPORTANT NEWS

Earlier this year, Fr. Matthew Foley, our former pastor, a good and holy priest, was falsely accused of sexual misconduct with a minor. He was cleared of any wrongdoing last Saturday. There was nothing to this false accusation. Please pray for him, and pray for anyone in leadership who may be faced with false accusations.

Easter 2025

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

For more than a thousand years, the Church has sung five words that capture the message of Easter: Christ our hope has risen.

This simple phrase powerfully expresses the conviction that our hope is the very person of the Risen Christ. He not only rose from the dead two-thousand years ago but is present and active in our world today. As the Risen One, he shares with us his victory and triumph over sin and death, drawing us into the fullness of life that God has ever desired for humanity. Yes, indeed Christ our hope has risen.

We recall this core belief in this Jubilee Holy Year when Pope Francis has called us to be Pilgrims of hope. This is an invitation to be a people who journey together, confident that we are sustained by this closeness to the Risen Christ as we face the challenges of life. As pilgrims of hope, we walk with the Risen One and lean on his presence for personal support, but we also discover the power to bring hope to our world, our families, communities, workplaces, and nation. This is a great grace and responsibility.

May our Easter faith that Christ our hope has risen grow stronger, so that we will join in his work of bringing hope to our world with new enthusiasm, putting aside all of our fears and anxieties, in the knowledge that by conquering death, the Risen Lord has given us the sure hope and promise that we too have risen with him and will live forever. Yes, Christ our hope has risen and so have we. Happy Easter!

Sincerely yours in Christ,
